123 promise it. When I arrived in Calderas on Monday I found that 623 the men of the village had not wanted to meet a second time and 554 that they had indeed begun the work.

623 The alcaldes and the alguacil are the messengers of the [203] cabildo; they notify the people when communal projects are [696] necessary. Moreover, the alguacil administers corporal punish-[203] ment. The three comisarios are likewise messengers and help
[794] the gobernador carry out and supervise public projects. It is the duty of the fiscales -- together with the gobernador -- to decorate the church. They provide candles and help the priest. According to C. Cuervo Marquez (Vol. II, p. 183), the fiscales formerly also had the duty of defending the interests of the /174/
871 village against the encroachments of the colonists. The comisario 623 escolar, finally, is responsible for the school attendance of the [797] children. The mission sisters, as the teachers, turn to him and [875] he is supposed to get the children to school, by force, if necessary.

It should not remain unmentioned that Calderas -- and ap-621 parently this village only -- is divided into four parts, each of 623 which occupies roughly a cardinal point and has about 50 houses.
[361] An alcalde, alguacil, fiscal, and comisario are each an equal representative of a quarter in the cabildo. At present the alcalde is the representative of the western region of Yocashí, the alguacil the representative of the northern region of Puélche, the fiscal that of the eastern region of Aépel, and the comisario that of the southern Bishók. I was told that the connection between an office and the representation of a village quarter is arbitrary, depending on where the occupant of the post happens to live. The official position within the cabildo is first assigned, and today it is the more important. Four of them take over the representation of a village quarter each. Thus, the comisario, if he lives there, may be the representative from Yocashí, and the alcalde the representative of Aépel. The present gobernador, for example, was fiscal ten years ago. Since he lives in the village section of Puélche, he was at the same time the representative of this quarter.
